MFSA Members Participate at AESF Week

The next industry event is the upcoming AESF/EPA Conference for Environmental Excellence, January 25-28, 1999, at Disney's Coronado Spring Resort, Orlando, FL. Several MFSA member companies will participate as speakers in the technical program, while others will be on hand to showcase their products and services at the trade show. MFSA will also hold all of its committee meetings during AESF Week and host a long-range planning board retreat at the end of the week. More details on MFSA's participation can be found on our website at www.mfsa.org. Be sure to support MFSA member companies by attending their presentations and visiting their booths during the show.
